

James W Hill

Mr. Hill is responsible for the strategic direction and financial management of the company. Mr. Hill joined AACL in November 2008 when his family took an ownership stake in the company.

Previously James was a Vice President and Program Manager for Marine Desalination Systems LLC in St. Petersburg Florida, a defense contractor conducting research and development for DARPA and the Office of Naval Research on new desalination and water provision processes. James was responsible for the financial management of the company as well as execution and management of research and development contracts.

Mr. Hill graduated from Georgetown University in Washington D.C. with a B.Sc. in Biochemistry and is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP).